Three weeks to go

Voters in most municipalities have just three weeks to make up their minds which candidates they want to look after their services for the next three years.

November 10 is the official election day, with advance polls scheduled in all municipalities between now and the main polling days. While in some townships all the municipal positions have been filled by acclamation, all area residents will have at least one vote to cast, as two candidates have indicated an interest in the single Board of Education seat for Haliburton County.

Cheryl Murdoch and Len Salvatori, both veteran members of the Haliburton County Board of Education, have filed their papers for the single seat. (For a closer look at their candidacy, see the special report on page four.)

Not quite ready to leave

Enjoying the warm fall weather and taking advantage of the low water level, these four Canada Geese have a bird's eye view of the passing scene on North and South Water streets from their private island in the Gull River. The Geese refused to comment when asked when they were planning to leave, although one was heard to suggest that rather than undertaking a tedious migration, they might just spend the winter in Mississauga.

Health facilities sod-turning will take place Friday

The Minister of Health has had to bow out, however the ground breaking ceremonies for the two health services facilities in the Highlands will still be going ahead this Friday.

Executive Director of the Haliburton Highlands Health Services Board, Foster Loucks learned the disappointing news on Friday. "We knew when the Premier appointed a new health minister that there might be a problem, "Loucks said Friday afternoon. "However we had hoped that the new minister would be able to work the ceremony into her schedule."

As a result of the Cabinet shuffle announced on October 10, Elizabeth Witmer has replaced Jim Wilson as the minister of Health. Wilson had indicated he would be here for the sod turning ceremonies.

"Naturally we are disappointed that the minister cannot be here to be a part of this," Loucks said, "however, the ceremonies will be going ahead as scheduled.

There are actually three events taking place during the afternoon. At 1 p.m. the ground breaking will take place at the Hyland Crest site. The ceremony will mark the beginning of a complete refurbishing of the 62 bed long term care facility and the relocation of the Minden Hospital services to the site.

An hour later, the focus will shift to the Haliburton Hospital where a similar ceremony will mark the start of a refurbishing of that facility and the addition of 30 long-term care beds to the hospital.

Finally, at 3 p.m., everyone is invited to PineStone Resort where there the Health Services Board Foundation will officially kick-off the fund raising for the new facilities. At that time, organizations and groups which have committed money to the projects will have an opportunity to present their donations. As well, the close to $750,000 which has been held in trust by the St. Joseph's Hospital Foundation in Peterborough will be officially presented to the local foundation. Refreshments will be available.

"The community is invited to one, two or all three locations," Loucks said. "This is the start of something we have been waiting for a long time and I know a lot of people will be happy to see the shovel in the ground."

While the Minister of Health will not be on hand, municipal politicians and health care officials are expected to be in attendance for the ceremonies. As well, MPP Chris Hodgson and MP John O'Reilly will be there to witness the start of the projects.

Spring Forward & FALL BACK

Don't forget to set your clocks back one hour this Saturday night as you retire. The last Saturday in October marks the end of Daylight Saving Time.

Could this be the Forestry Capital of Canada ?

The Haliburton Highlands Stewardship Council is preparing a bid to have the Haliburton Highlands designated as the Forest Capital of Canada for the year 2000.

This title is awarded annually by the Canadian Forestry Association, Canada's oldest conservation organization. The CFA promotes forestry education and awareness programmes across Canada including the Smokey the Bear campaign.

The competition has been in place since 1979. Some of the previous winners include Grand Prairie, Alberta, Meadow Lake, Saskatchewan and Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario. If the Highlands were selected, the area would also receive international attention as part of a display at Exposition 2000 in Hanover, Germany.

The Stewardship council has been working on its proposal for several months and will make a presentation to the Forestry Associations Board of Directors in the spring of 1998. Although no official submissions have yet been received, the CFA has also been in contact with Calgary, Alberta and the north western Ontario region of Thunder Bay and Dryden as possible contenders for the forestry title.

Glen Blouin is the Executive Director of the Canadian Forestry Association. He believes that if the Haliburton Highlands was selected, there would be definite benefits to the area. "It is an opportunity for a community to celebrate its dependence on the forest, both economically and environmentally,." says Blouin. "It is a chance for the community to generate some profile and stage events. There is a good economic spin off."

Once selected, the designated "forest capital" cannot rest on its laurels, however. It must create a number of activities and events that commemorate the forest. As well the committee must also create what Glen Blouin calls a "legacy project" which will stand as a permanent acknowledgment of the title. This may be a commemorative park or statue, a hiking trail or a museum. The residents of Nackawic, New Brunswick, a former winner, decided to do things a little differently in 1991. They built the world's largest axe to celebrate their title. The axe now stands as a tourist attraction.

The Stewardship council has until November 30 to make its formal written submission to the Canadian Forestry Association.

Hospice Volunteer Glen Flood was on hand to answer questions from the public during the SIRCH Hospice Awareness week. The information booths were out in several locations including Dollo's IGA and Easton's Valu-mart in Minden. The hospice is a supportive venture which provides services to families of terminally ill patients and individuals with life threatening illnesses.

Four for three seats in AHM

The three incumbent members of Anson, Hindon and Minden municipal council are being challenge for their spot at the council table by newcomer John Cooper.

"I figure I've done enough whining and it was time to put my money where my mouth is," Cooper said as he explained why he has decided to run. "If I'm going to complain, then I should be doing something about improving the situation."

There are a number of reasons the owner of Minden Rent-All has decided to seek municipal office. He wants to do more to bring small clean industry into the area. Noting that there are few jobs in the area to attract or keep young people here, he said, "We have a nice environment and cheap wages; it should be an incentive to anyone looking for a place to establish some kind of industry."

The candidate is also concerned that the police force was moved out of the county last year. "It takes an hour and a half for a police officer to respond from the headquarters (in Coboconk) to the farthest reaches of the county," he pointed out. He feels something should be done to get the detachment re-established in the county. (In fact renovations are scheduled to begin shortly that would see a portion of the Ministry of Natural resources building turned into an office for the OPP.)

Cooper is also concerned about the number of empty stores on the community's main street. "I think we have to make an effort to refurbish the downtown, " he said.

Cooper said he is willing to listen to suggestions. "I do not have all the answers," he said.

The candidate served as a trustee for one term on the Haliburton County School Board and has been a resident for the past 43 years.

Incumbents

The other three candidates for the council seats are all members of the present council.

Councillor Sinclair Nesbitt is eager the see the municipality's industrial park (as he prefers to call it) up and running.

"We've put a lot of work into that project and I would like to see it through to the finish," he said. "If we could attract 25 or 30 new jobs to that area it could make a big difference to our community," he noted. "We can't rely on the upper levels of government for help any more....we have to be prepared to do it ourselves."

"If we don't help ourselves we'll find there are no more young people in the area...that they'll all have gone elsewhere looking for work."

Nesbitt has over 25 years experience in the municipal political arena. He has served on Stanhope council, including the position of reeve, has been reeve in Anson, Hindon and Minden and Warden of Haliburton County. Along with his sons, he operates a logging business.

Nesbitt was appointed to council during the last term after a vacancy occurred on the council

Grant Plooard

Councillor Grant Plooard also points to his two terms (six years) on municipal council as a reason for returning him to the post.

"This is going to be a very important term because of all the changes coming from Queen's Park," Plooard said. "During my first term it took about a year and a half to feel comfortable with the details of the job. That is why I think experience is important."

The councillor believes that some form of amalgamation will be necessary for municipalities to survive. "Right now there isn't a lot of will out there but if we don't act on our own, it will be forced on us by the province."

Plooard still favours a two tier form of government for the county, but with larger units on the lower tier. "We should be going for this right after the election," he suggested.

He also pointed to the Minden business park as a major contribution to the community. "We got it started and I would like to see it up and running. This is the only business park in the county on municipal water and sewer," he said proudly.

Daryl Moore

The completion of the business park is also high on the agenda of Coun-

Following last week's story in The Times about the disappearing cats, calls were received from as far as Moore Falls, lamenting the loss of pet felines. A couple of callers reported seeing fishers in the area noting that they could be contributing to the depletion of the local feline population. The story got much wider exposure when Audra Brown, a videographer from The New VR television station in Barrie, visited Minden and interviewed Edith Smith, Gwen Cox and veterinarian, Doctor Peter Bennett of the Minden Animal Clinic, among others. Her report was televised on the 6 and 11 p.m. news on October 16. Brown is seen here interviewing Doctor Bennett.

Two vying for single Board of Education seat

by Arial White

There is a head to head race between the candidates running for the single position on the expanded board of education. Following an amalgamation announced earlier this year, in which Haliburton, Victoria and Muskoka were combined under one education administration, Haliburton County was given just one seat on the new board.

Cheryl Murdoch

Both Leonard Salvatori and Cheryl Murdoch believe that they have the experience and the know-how to represent Haliburton County on an amalgamated school board.

I am a trustee for the kids," says Salvatori, a 35 year veteran of the Haliburton Board. "They should get equal opportunity. I want to make sure that kids get a good education. All kids."

Salvatori is concerned about the amalgamation of the school boards and whether they will work effectively, although he feels that all the parties involved want to help their students. "It's pretty large. It is so big and involves a lot of people. I don't know if it can function. It is a big change that will take a lot of getting used to," the candidate said.

Salvatori's opponent, Cheryl Murdoch, has a more optimistic outlook on the merger. "We (the school boards) have different ways of doing business, but we all care about kids," says Murdoch. " We are doing everything in our power to make it work. After 19 years as a trustee you get a feel for people."

Both Salvatori and Murdoch are members of the Local Education Improvement Committee (LEIC).. Murdoch is the chair while Salvatori chairs the business sub-committee. The main task of the LEIC is to make the transition to an expanded board run as smoothly as possible. The candidates feel that the province has made the job of the LEIC much more difficult as it has given little instruction as to how it wants things run.

"They have been very slow in providing us with guidelines. We don't know what the role of the trustee will entail," says Murdoch. She believes that if there had been more direction from the government more people would have come forward to run for the position of trustee.

Salvatori agrees that the LEIC has had insufficient guidance. "We should have known a long time ago what the trustees should be doing. Right now we are in the 'we don't know' stage. They have left the work up to the LEIC and the LEIC is overworked," he says.

Murdoch feels that the person who is chosen on November 10 must be dedicated to serving the entire county. I have a great tie to the system. I am willing to give a lot of time," she says. "I want to represent Haliburton County."

Her contender is equally eager to win the position. "I've always been interested in education," says Salvatori. "I am young at heart and I have the experience."

The trustee who is elected will be the sole representative for Haliburton County. The present Haliburton County board has sent a letter to the Ministry of Education requesting that a mechanism be put in place to allow an alternate representative to be named for the county. It has been pointed out that with just one representative, the county may be unrepresented if that individual is ill or unable to attend meeting(s) for whatever reason. So far, there has been no word from the province on this subject.

Leonard Salvatori

Haliburton County is also included in a number of other boards of education. While there are few electors in the county, this area is also part of the French Language Public School District # 58, Region 3a. The following candidates are running in this area: René Laurin and Danielle Muyal.

Little to spark voter interest in Sherborne et al

Candidates running for the position of councillor for Sherborne et al are concerned that there will be little interest in this year's municipal election on the part of the constituents. With a lack of serious issues to debate, and no contest for reeve or deputy reeve, the candidates believe that this will be a quiet election.

The top jobs on the Sherborne et al council have been won by acclamation. Don Shortreed, a former head of the council, will become the reeve and incumbent councillor Ellen Wiley will take on the role of deputy reeve. Garry Sanderson, Keith McAllister, Kerry Lock and Joyce McKey are running for the three council posts.

"There's more apathy than anything else. If there is a turn-out of more than ten per cent I'd be surprised," says Keith McAllister.

McAllister ran for deputy reeve and lost in the previous election. He believes that without a real race in the election and the lack of issues this year, there is little concern in the community. "There should be a hot topic but what is there this year? How many snowmobile trails there are? There's not a whole lot going on," he says. McAllister feels that he can bring new ideas to the council that will expand its capabilities. "I think Dorset needs a businessman's perspective. I think I can lend something," he says.

Incumbent Councillors Joyce McKey and Kerry Lock both agree that this year's election will be a low key contest in comparison with previous races. It's pretty quiet this year," says Kerry Lock. "There's just the four of us. Things are a bit calm." Kerry Lock has been a councillor for one term.

Lock believes that running for a sec-

Priorities

There will be many issues confronting the new municipal councils as they take office in about a month's time. However, none appears to be more pressing than the need to find some economies of scale to ease the burden on the beleagured municipal budgets. That comment arises in almost every conversation we have had with candidates for municipal office.

While some are reluctant to make a solid commitment to idea of amalgamation, those who hesitate say it is only because all the figures aren't in yet or the definitive study that supports amalgamation has not been done.

These same individuals point out however, that the impact of downloaded services, which has yet to be felt, and the stated desire of the Mike Harris regime for "less government" will ultimately lead to some form of economies being forced upon the municipal level by the province. One need only look at what has happened to school boards in the province to realize that this government is serious about its intention, if not somewhat ham-handed in its implementation of those changes.

We are aware that any decision regarding amalgamation will have to wait until after the November 10 votes are counted. However, when the newly elected (or acclaimed) councils sit down for the first time, taking a serious look at amalgamation should be high on their list of priorities. If it isn't, there is a good chance it will be on the provincial government's list.

O-fence-ive

Editor:

I've logged over 40 years on Twelve Mile Lake and have always felt the overwhelming sense of peace when my feet hit the ground at our cottage. Some of my friends cannot imagine why we spend so much time there. I have always felt that if you have to ask, you just don't get it. The Haliburton Highlands are heaven.

The churchyard by our cottage reflects years of joy and sorrow. I can conjure up memories of Sunday School picnics, Hymn sings, paper chases, wild raspberries, baseball games, swimming lessons, hide and seek, football games, ultimate frisbee, Christian lessons for visiting kids who didn't understand the significance of graveyards, funerals of friends' families, my parents and of strangers. Rather than being a spooky place, my parents, my brothers and my family, friends and neighbours have come to love this churchyard and chapel.

Why is it fenced now in such an uninviting way? How come a magnificent tree was knocked down to accommodate this new barrier? Who's being kept out ?... or in?

Why am I so sad one day after Thanksgiving? The Township of Anson Hindon and Minden taxes us...why don't they consult us?

Studio tour support is appreciated

Editor:

How many times have I heard that Haliburton County is the most beautiful and friendly place there is?

On October 4 and 5 I heard that said more than two thousand times. I have a Studio which participates in the Haliburton County Studio Tour and, along with twenty other participating studios, we hosted our tenth annual studio tour.

This year I have been elected President, and on behalf of everyone who participates, I would like to thank all those who made this year's tour a success....a success not only for the individual studios, but for the entire County.

If it were not for the cooperation, support and help of many individuals, organizations and businesses, the Studio Tour, and the County would not be what it is today....the inns, resorts, B&Bs, motels and cottage rentals who all receive large bookings for "The Tour", along with the stores, shops, boutiques and restaurants who all helped distribute our brochures and showed visitors to the county our warm Haliburton Highland hospitality.

It was a pleasure to greet the many familiar faces who strolled down my driveway and exciting to introduce myself to visitors who travelled from as far away as New York and England and Belarus.

Many thanks to our local newspapers for their continued support and coverage, the Chamber of Commerce for their diligence. Thanks also go to Barb Bolin and everyone at Sir Sandford Fleming College who help keep the "Arts" growing. And to our Host Galleries, thanks to Ruth Amos at the Agnes Jamieson Gallery and Pam Kinney at the Rails' End Gallery whose exhibits were an important asset so people could preview our work.

The Haliburton County Studio Tour does not just happen on its own. It takes a lot of blood, sweat and tears from each and every studio, plus a commitment to the quality of work that we do. Thanks to Maggie & Steve - Longworth, Susan & Michael Butz, Dorothy Rawsthorne, Barbara Joy Peel, Joan & Peter Hoad, Ed Araquel, Rickie Woods, all at Senitt Dolls & Puppets, Derek & Paul Rolfe, Joyce Pruysers & Peter Emmink, Grahame & Debbie Wales, Glenn Diezel, Gary & Judy Chapman, Edgar & Lynn Hancock, Doreen Berry, Helen Newton, Lindsay Beaudry, David Hollows, Wendy Ladurantaye, Jean Farrell, Marion & Jack Kinsman and to our guest artists Kevin Dunlop, Velma Stiver, Mary Wallace, Marie-Luce Pelletier, Sheila Ziman and Gordon John Freer. God bless you all.

The search continues

Editor:

For a month now, our cats have continued to disappear. We have now lost ten, five the first week, the latest October 13, leaving no trace as to how or what has happened to them. We have had cats for twenty years and only lost three in all that time, until now.

No one can offer any suggestions as to what can be happening to them. It has been thought that foxes or coyotes have taken them, others think it could be a person or persons for whatever reason.

I know these cats have not just wandered off. Some of them are over ten years old and have never left the property. We live on the river and for years people going up and down the river have come ashore just to pet and talk to the cats and always wave when I am out and feeding them, especially the children.

I have neighbours down Deep Bay Road who have also lost their cats and we are all heartbroken and sick with worry at the thought of what could have happened to them as well as fear for our other cats, there are quite a number altogether that are lost or have been taken.

I am making this appeal to anyone who would help form a group of volunteers. Perhaps of young people with some adults to lead them in coming down to see where the cats live and to start a search of the area for traces or tracks of an animal or person responsible.

I am unable, physically, myself to take part in a search but would be most grateful to anyone who would help or suggest what could have happened to all these beautiful pets.

Survey says

Keep services public

Ontario municipalities will be faced with an agenda which will challenge them to deal with increased demand for services. At the top of the agenda, roads maintenance, homes for the aged, police and cultural facilities such as libraries, museums and art galleries are the areas the municipal constituents believe their local governments should be giving a top priority, an Ernst & Young sponsored survey indicates.

When asked which services should be reduced, maintained or increased at the local government level, respondents in this province-wide survey indicated that roads and maintenance (49%), homes for the aged (45%), public transit (37%), are the priority areas where the municipal leaders should be increasing services. Those areas in the second tier of priorities included police (30%), cultural facilities such as libraries, museums and art galleries (30%), public housing (27%), parks and recreation services (25%).

The findings are based on 600 interviews by the Angus Reid Group with residents of Ontario aged 18 years or over. Questions were asked to determine user satisfaction levels and to probe for acceptance of user fees and commercialization of some municipal services. Respondents were selected randomly and interviewed by telephone. Surveys of this type and size are accurate to within 4.5%, 19 times out of 20.

It is interesting to note in the survey findings that areas identified as the priority for increased services are also those areas which have some of the lowest satisfaction rates. In this regard, those ranking services provided by local governments as very good/good/ were lowest in public housing (37%), licensing and inspection services (47%), public transit (51%) and homes for the aged (54%). Those receiving the highest marks included fire services (88%) followed then by water supply and sewage, garbage collection, parks and recreation and police-- all at 79%.

The results pose some challenges for municipalities under pressure to reduce costs, should they wish to drop specific services, or explore alternative service delivery options with private industry, says Ian Bowell, partner with Ernst & Young's Regional and Municipal Practise.

Over 90% of Ontarians want municipalities to provide police and fire services directly. Large majorities also believe that municipalities should directly provide water and sewage (75%), parks and recreation (78%), homes for the aged (60%), licensing and inspections (71%), and road maintenance and sidewalk (62%). In these areas, 30% or less of Ontarians support contracting services to the private sector.

"Ontarians want the same level of service or better, but there is an expectation gap that cannot be easily reconciled by the status quo. The message here for municipal governments is that a major education process would be needed to introduce change. Implementing different ownership and service delivery options, such as commercialization, joint ventures, partnerships, contracting

Stepping out of the closet

I have a confession to make. The time has come for me to come out of the closet. It's my duty to alert my faithful readers as to my true nature. I've already told my family. I've tried to explain it to the few friends I have left. I can only hope that our relationship can, however battered, survive, based on a platform of mutual respect untainted by the poison of judgmental prejudices.

But I'm not sure it can. Not after I tell you that I am a practicing....

Birdwatcher.

It's true. I realize now, looking back, that I have always been a birdwatcher, albeit a furtive one. As a kid I sucked in my breath as I watched the aerial antics of barn swallows and bats. I marveled at the impossibly elegant, gravity-defying nests of orioles; thrilled to the explosive thunder of a ruffed grouse taking flight from cover just inches ahead of my hiking boots....

I was watching birds, sure, but I wasn't a -- you know -- birdwatcher per se. I was still normal. Not one of those goofy fanatics you see in tennis shoes and Tilley hats, creeping through the raspberry canes with a Peterson's Field Guide in one hand and a pair of Bushnell 7X50's in the other.

True, some of my most vibrant memories seemed to revolve around birds. I remember the other-worldly experience of hiking out on a cliff high on the Niagara Escarpment in southern Ontario and seeing a pair of turkey vultures soaring at eye level, so close that I could see their beady little eyes and red neck wattles.

I remember sitting on a beach on the Caribbean island of Antigua, tracking white pelicans as they circled lazily high in the sky only to suddenly hurl themselves into steep, kamikaze dives right into the ocean.

They hit the surface with such force it didn't seem possible for them to survive. They did -- and surfaced with a crawful of fish more often than not.

Oh, I can see it now -- Birds Are Me! My favourite sight: arrowheads of Canada geese etched on a spring sky. My favourite sound: the eerie ululations of an unseen loon at dusk. My favourite smell: roast turkey on Thanksgiv-- okay, a little cruel, but you get my point. One way or another, I've been 'birdwatching' for years.

And then, a few years back, I moved to the west coast. We get most of the regulars out here -- robins, chickadees, starlings and crows. But there are also bald eagles and Great Blue Herons, Stellar Jays and Rufous-headed towhees. Not to mention eight dozen different kinds of seagulls, none of which I'd ever seen before.

I've arrived in Birdwatcher Heaven. That's why I decided the time has come to 'out' myself.

Mind you I plan to take it one step at a time. I wouldn't want to make the blunder of British birdwatcher Neil Symmons. Mister Symmons managed to attract a tawny owl to his garden -- no mean feat, considering that he lives in downtown London and tawny owls are notoriously shy. Nonetheless, each evening for twelve straight months, Mister Symmons has gone into his garden at dusk and 'called' his owl. And each night for twelve straight months he's heard the unearthly, unmistakable hoot of a tawny owl answering him.

Symmon's wife Kim was so proud of Neil. She mentioned his evening pastime to her next-door neighbour.

"That's odd" said the neighbour, "my husband Fred spends his evenings out back talking to an owl...."

You guessed it. The two enthusiasts had been 'hooting' to each other every night for a year.

Birdwatching. No one ever said it would be easy.

Public wants municipal involvement in the delivery of services, survey says out and privatization requires a 'comfort level' of public awareness and acceptance which does not yet appear to exist," Bowell said.

Does this mean that privatization is a no-no issue for municipal governments? Not at all says Bowell. "Studies such as the recent Bank of Canada Report show that many municipalities are increasingly involved in the alternative delivery of services and there will be further opportunities. But the challenge is that the public is not yet on side."

Adds manager Deb Powis of Ernst & Young, "You have to look at governments as the most diverse company in the world providing an incredible array of services. If Canadians want the same level of services at lower costs, governments will be forced to look for alternatives to determine how things will change and who is best equipped to do the job. There are a range of options and there are no canned solutions."

Ontarians are willing to accept some type of user fees in all areas except police, fire services and road maintenance and sidewalks. However, respondents are generally opposed to user fees if they are the primary or exclusive source of revenue. Support for an emphasis on user fees is highest for licensing (64%), public transit (60%) and arts and culture (52%).

Other highlights of the survey include:

• Road maintenance--including snow removal and sidewalks--is the area with the lowest satisfaction.

• There is no widespread belief that municipal services need to be reduced. A significant minority want increased services in most areas.

• Ontarians are most likely to want increased services relating to roads and homes for the aged.

"Municipalities have to look further into the future and have a plan in place to address even greater demands for increased services and budget reductions. Implementing non-traditional solutions is challenging, and it cannot be done without the public support and understanding," says Bowell.

Kawartha West Final
The HHSS senior Redmen football team will play for the Kawartha West Championship Friday, October 24 on home turf.

HHSS senior field hockey team meets its match

by Jerry Grozelle

The showdown between two undefeated senior field hockey teams saw the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School team face the toughest competition it's had this season. For the first time this season, in league play, the Hal Hi girls found themselves fighting to overcome a one goal deficit.

Lakefield College School scored about 10 minutes into the first half of the game when the Haliburton defence failed to clear a rebound. An LCS attacker was able to get her stick on the ball and put it past Hal Hi goalie Jen Wales. It was the first goal scored on the HHSS squad in five league games this season.

The Lakefield team held on to record the 1-0 win. Lakefield came close to adding to its lead late in the game when a shot rattled off the goal post to Wales' left.

"This is the type of thing we're going to face from here on in," said coach Kit Pizzey. "I was quite pleased the way the girls did play. We knew they were going to be a strong team, but we haven't faced a strong team like that since an exhibition game at the beginning of the year.

"I was pleased with the way the defence worked. I thought the score might have ended up higher against us, but our defence was really solid.

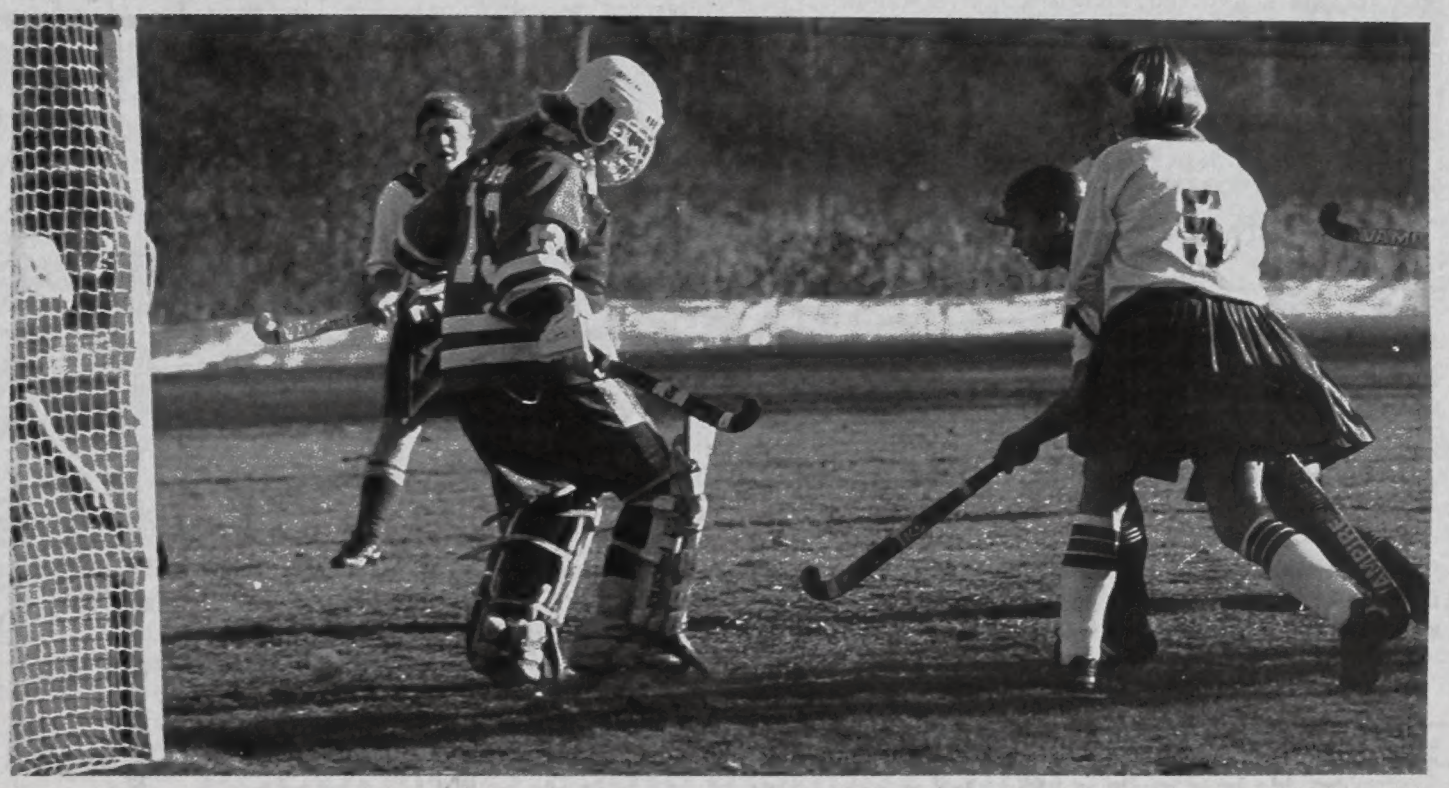
Pizzey said the player of the game for her team was goalie Jen Wales.

The Haliburton team played a stronger game in the first half, but the Lakefield pressure took its toll in the second half. The Hal Hi squad's frustration resulted in numerous penalty corners by the visitors. Even so, the home side managed to keep the Lakefield girls from adding to their score.

Pizzey gives credit to the Lakefield team's level of skill.

"Those players are much more skilled than what we've been used to playing against," she said.

Pizzey added that when a team is accustomed to walking around the opposition and then finds itself up against a team with more skill, frustration is bound to surface, resulting in penalty calls.



NEW EXPERIENCE: Jen Wales made the initial save on a Lakefield shot, but the rebound was put into the net by a LCS attacker. Having a goal scored on her during the regular season was a new experience for the Hal Hi senior field hockey goaltender. The ball can be seen behind her just before going into the net. The HHSS team suffered its first loss during league play this season, Friday. The loss put the local girls in second place in their pool, advancing them to the Kawartha qualifiers.

"It's good experience for them to run up against that," Pizzey said, adding that it will help the HHSS girls prepare for the Kawartha championship.

Friday's game was the final of the regular season. The loss dropped the Hal Hi team back into second place in its pool.

The Haliburton County girls will compete in the Kawartha qualifiers. The top four teams from each of the two pools will compete at Kawartha.

"If we finish first or second in our pool at Kawartha, we will go to the Kawartha final," Pizzey said.

Juniors dominate

Hal Hi's junior field hockey team dominated the Lakefield College School opposition in the day's early game.

Kim Varty scored on a long shot in the first half, and that's all the HHSS girls would need. Tanya Sisson set up the goal.

When the LCS team did get a scoring opportunity, Hal Hi goaltender Kelly Dawson was up to the challenge. She earned the shutout as Haliburton cruised to the 1-0 victory.

HHSS had numerous good scoring opportunities throughout the game. Caley Sisson had an exceptional game, with several shots on net.

Kit Pizzey, who coached the game in the absence of regular coach Traci Hubbert, said it was fun coaching the junior team.

"It was a good team effort, Pizzey said. "They worked hard."

Minden tykes eager for action

The Minden Monarchs tyke hockey team is short on experience but long on enthusiasm as the 1997-98 season gets under way. With just four returning "veterans" and 10 rookies, the Monarchs took to the ice at the Minden arena October 12 to tangle with the Wilberforce Rockets.

The Rockets demonstrated that experience pays big dividends on the scoreboard. They romped to a 18-0 victory.

Paddy Manuge, one of the veterans, stood up well under the gun in the Minden net. He faced shot after shot, coming up big many times. Minden attackers Todd Simms, Ryan Smith, Jason Chapman, Jared Mills, Robbie Hicks and the rest of the tyke squad made some good moves and had some chances, but were unable to crack the Wilberforce goalie's defence.

In spite of the loss, the Minden crew had fun and eagerly anticipated an October 18 match-up against the Haliburton Huskies.

As the local team gains experience team officials expect the Monarchs to become more competitive.

HHSS cross-country runners prepare for COSSA

by Coach Paul Morissette

The Haliburton Highlands Secondary School cross-country runners performed well at the Kawartha championships, held at Trinity college in Port Hope October 15.

The team has been competing in invitational runs for the past three weeks in preparation for the Kawartha championships.

The junior girls team of Stephanie Ratz, Katherine Haggerman, Kelly Ketner and Reagan Brown placed second overall in Port Hope. Ratz also placed second in the individual run.

Caitlin Pettit, in her fifth year of competition, continues to show tremendous improvement as she ran to a third place showing in the senior girls' competition.

Lindsey Robertson led the midget girls' team, with a top 25 performance.

The boys' teams were led by Blayne Saunders, Jason Horsley, Jeremy Johnson, Matt Heffer, John Craig and Danny Wright. Although they did not reach the podium, they ran their gruelling five to seven kilometre runs very strongly, finishing in the top half.

The HHSS team is preparing for the COSSA championships, which will be held October 22 in Trenton. The team is looking forward to a strong showing at COSSA and is hopeful of qualifying several runners for the OFSSA, which will be held this year at Cobden, in the Ottawa Valley.

Of the 10 ASES girls in the six to eight age class, only Sherri Walker placed in the top three, with a third place finish.

None of the ASES boys in that age group did as well.

Six ASES girls competed in the nine to 11 age group. Kate Dawson finished first and Amanda Bowman placed second.

The ASES boys also did well in the nine to 11 age group. Benji Saunders took first place, Kolt Smith was fourth and Rob Stevens was fifth.

Three girls from the Minden school finished in the top five in the 12 and over age group. Kerri Matysek was first, Laura Patterson placed third and fourth went to Cheryl Ripley.

The ASES boys did equally well in the 12 and over division. David Bloomfield was first, Ryan Porter was third and Eric Bell took fourth.

OMHA atoms 2-1-1 in first four league games

Four games into the season, the Minden OMHA atom Monarchs are gaining momentum. The first two games ended in a loss and a tie, but the Monarchs got on the right track with a 9-2 victory over Omemee October 11 in Minden. The Monarchs scored two goals in each of the first two periods, opening the game up with five markers in the third.

Minden captain Evan Kernohan and Kolt Smith paced the Minden attack. Kernohan scored four goals and Smith added a hat trick and one assist. Mark Fisher and Darrin Brown were the other marksmen with one each. Fisher helped the cause with three assists, Brown had two helpers and a single went to Andrew Bull.

The Minden team continued its winning ways the following day in Manvers with a 4-3 come-from-behind win.

Manvers got on the scoreboard first, putting the only goal of the first period on the home side.

Minden notched two goals 25 seconds apart in the first two minutes of the middle frame to take a 2-1 lead.

Manvers wasn't about to give up without a fight, however. The home team tied the game midway through the period and jumped into the lead again with 1:07 remaining in the second.

The third belonged to the Monarchs. They scored two unanswered goals to grab a 4-3 win.

Kernohan scored a hat trick, including the tying and winning goals in the third period. Smith added a single, while Sean Keaney and Fisher had one assist each.

Omemee replied with one in the first period and one in the third.

A game in Orono on October 10 saw the Monarchs take a 3-2 third-period lead. But the home team scored with less than two minutes remaining to salvage a 3-3 tie.

Minden took a 2-0 lead in the first period. Sean Keaney and Kolt Smith scored one each just 17 seconds apart. Kernohan and Bull each picked up an assist.

Orono tied the game with two unanswered goals in the second.

Kernohan got the go-ahead goal in the third on an unassisted effort, before Orono knotted the game.

Kernohan notched the lone Minden goal, from Brown and Keaney in a 6-1 loss to Millbrook on October 1 in Millbrook.

"It's people like Cathy who really make things come together," said league president Grant Shaw.

"Excellent intensity" propels senior soccer team to finals

After starting the season with three consecutive losses, the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School senior soccer Redmen rebounded with three wins, vaulting into second place in the league standings. That qualifies the Redmen for the Kawartha West final against the Weldon Wildcats in Lindsay on October 21.

Redmen coach Peter Bertelsen credits his team with "excellent intensity to prevail in three must-win games."

The latest win was a 3-0 romp over the Lindsay Collegiate Spartans on October 15 in Lindsay.

Sheamus Donnery opened the scoring for the redmen in the first half, putting in a rebound of a drive by Nick Fawcett. Donnery made it 2-0 in the second half, scoring on a penalty shot, his fourth of the season. Jesse Sternberg made it 3-0 with his first goal of the season. Sternberg capped off a hard rush, fighting off several LCVI defenders and putting the kick past the goaltender from a sharp angle.

Among the game's standouts was goalie Jason Kasepchuk, defenceman Nathan Stephenson, midfielder Nick Fawcett and forwards Sheamus Donnery and Perry Belekoukias.

The game wasn't without its drawbacks. Two players will be out of the lineup for the Kawartha West final because of injuries. Defenceman Kevin Brezina suffered a broken leg and Konan Wendt reopened a cut above his eye.

"Both have been exceptional players this year, often playing 60-70 minutes per game," Bertelsen said. "They will be missed."

Bertelsen said two things his team will have to work on include "field balance and not getting hurt."

HHSS juniors double goal output in final league game of the season

The season is over for the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School junior Redmen soccer team. The Redmen finished the regular season last Wednesday in Lindsay with a game against the Lindsay Collegiate Spartans.

Redmen coach Paul Klose said the game was the highlight of the season for his team. The Redmen jumped to an early 2-0 lead, doubling their goal total for the season.

Jarrett Aggett and Dan Vanderlip scored one each before the three minute mark of the first half.

"It was incredible," Klose said. "I think we scored two goals all season and we doubled that up in the first three minutes of this last game."

Unfortunately for the Redmen, the Spartans took the early deficit in stride, getting those two goals back and adding four more for a 6-2 win before the game ended.

Klose said midfielders Shane Campbell and Andrew Brown, defenceman Josh Roadknight and goaltender BJ Fowler all played exceptionally well.

Klose said LCVI had some excellent shooters, but Fowler made some good saves.

"I was pleased with the season," Klose said. "The boys played well and we improved with each game, which is something that we worked for. I think they're happy with the season as well."

Business park is 'vital' says candidate cillor Daryl Moore. "The business park is vital and important to this community and I want to see it through to the finish," Moore commented.

"This council has worked well together. I'm ready to be a part of it again. I and young and aggressive and want to lead this municipality into the next century."

Moore noted he has a young family and he wants to make Minden into a good place for them to grow up.

He has yet to decide on whether the municipality should amalgamate with surrounding townships. "All the numbers are not in and those that are are only tentative," he said. But he suggested it is time to take a "serious look" at how it might work, "...because with the down-loading that is coming we better be ready."

Moore is just completing his first term on council.

The two other municipal offices were filled by acclamation. Jeanne Anthon was returned as the municipality's reeve and Jerry Rome will continue for another term as the Deputy Reeve.

All the candidates will be attending the open forum on Monday September 27 at Hyland Crest. At the event the public will have an opportunity to question the candidates on their positions and get a greater understanding of the issues leading into the next three year term

Sherborne candidate favours more growth

ond term is an important part of being a member of the region. "It is an extension of doing things for the community. I'd like to be a part of keeping Haliburton healthy. We need to be a good strong viable place," says Lock. "And there are always little projects to work on."

Joyce McKey has been a councillor since 1978, but she says that there are many task she has yet to accomplish with the Sherborne council. "There are many things that I am interested in and I have the time to give. I would be lost without it." McKey hopes to create more growth in Dorset and Oxtongue Lake as well as help to maintain the character of the existing communities. "I'd like to see orderly development, but nothing that would hinder the environment or what we already have. I would like to see our community improve," she says.

Regardless of who takes the three seats for Sherborne, the candidates feel that the new council will face a challenge with the downloading of costs by the provincial government. Each would like to participate with council as it prepares to establish new groundwork for the funding and development of the area.

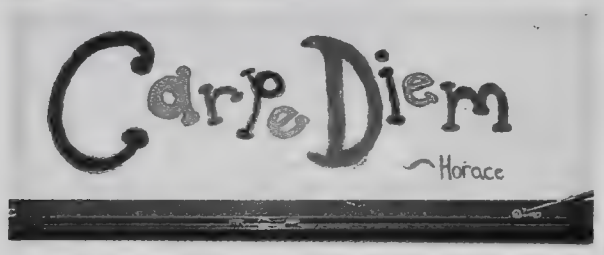
HHSS hallways get a colourful make-over

by Jamie Read,
HHSS student reporter

Walking through the hallways at Haliburton Highlands Secondary School, you will notice a big change everywhere you go. Shortly before this school year started, the student council decided that the hallways needed a make over. Instead of a plain shade of white, the walls are now decorated with colorful artwork and noteable quotes and sayings by people like Willy Wanka and Ann Landers. Not only does this brighten up the hallways, it gives students a sense of pride in their school.

"We knew we really wanted to paint; we needed something that would make the first day of school more neat and interesting. This was our signal to the students of changes coming to our school this year." says Sue Carr, student council captain, and Bryn Gray, student council co-captain.



One of the many colourful quotes.

On October 25, the council will be adding more colorful murals to the walls at H.H.S.S and is also giving any students with creative ideas or artwork the opportunity to display their work.

Ahead

Other important events that will be coming up at H.H.S.S are Hallowe'en Theme Week, Retro Week, and most importantly and historically, the Semi-Formal, which this year, is boasting a Hawaiian theme, complete with a 10 ft. palm tree, erupting volcano, and free leis.

It has been very apparent for the past weeks that the enthusiasm and creativity shown by the student council has had a very positive effect on the high school's atmosphere. School activities are more fun, more students are getting involved in events, and therefore, making the school a more inviting place for students. Students have learned that if you combine energy and share ideas, the outcome of your goal will always be fulfilling.

"We have such an enthusiastic Student Council this year", says Carr. "There are so many great ideas, amazing school spirit, and mounds of energy,m that it makes everybody's job much easier," Gray added.

Student Council co-captains Bryn Gray and Sue Carr are framed by some of the new wall art at HHSS.

New president elected at Staanworth Court

The colours we associate with our fall season have certainly surpassed themselves in beauty this year. A walk along any street in the Minden area revealed a colourful horizon. We really don't need to travel far to enjoy the season.

Mother Nature certainly dwells in our area. Now if she would just direct the Canada Geese to their winter destinations, they would stop their circular flights.

The residents of the Court have elected a new president of the Tenants' Association. Katie Parker will take on the chores for the next year. Maxine Cross will be vice-president, Dorothy Ash remains as Secretary and Fern Donnelly as Treasurer. Past president Doris Moore was thanked for her years of service.

Euchre, bingo and darts are starting for the fall. The dart players had hoped the summer rest would have improved their aim - we are still waiting for proof!

At the bus stop

Dress appropriately.
Be at the bus stop on time.
Wait well away from the road - no pushing or shoving.
If you must cross the road wait for the bus to stop, look both ways and look to the driver for their signal that it's okay to cross.
Use the hand rail when boarding.

On the bus

Take your seat and stay there until it's time to get off.
Don't open your windows without the driver's permission, never put your arms or head out the window.
Speak quietly don't yell or scream.
Listen to the driver, do what he/she says!

Getting off the bus

Carry all your belongings in a knapsnack or bag - never try to carry it all in your arms.
Use the hand rail when leaving the bus.
Walk three steps from the side of the bus and ten steps forward before crossing in front of the bus. Stop and look back to the driver for his/her signal telling you it is safe to cross - remember to walk not run.

Preventing elder abuse will be topic of seminar

Haliburton County Home Support Services will be holding a presentation on how seniors can avoid being victims of physical, emotional and financial abuse.

Bob Mitchell, president of the Haliburton County Home Support Services, hopes that this seminar will help prevent seniors from becoming the victims of elder abuse. "This problem is becoming more prevalent in the community," says Mitchell. "Primarily this will be an educational operation."

Two representatives from the Sudbury Elder Abuse Committee will be in attendance to discuss what seniors can do to protect themselves and others from financial scams as well as information on physical abuse. They will also point out where seniors can receive help if they feel they are victims of such abuse.

Mitchell hopes a program will be created to help thwart elder abuse in Haliburton County. "We are hoping to set something up in Haliburton. This will be an introduction to the Elder Abuse program," he said. A seniors educational program and a information phone line are two possibilities that Mitchell thinks would be effective tools for educating Haliburton County seniors on elder abuse. Similar program are being used in Victoria County.

The presentation will be held on October 24 and will run from 10 a.m. until noon at Staanworth Terrace, 44 Parkside St. in Minden, in conjunction with the Staanworth Non-Profit Housing Corporation. For more information call the Haliburton County Home Support Services at 457-2941. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Staanworth notes

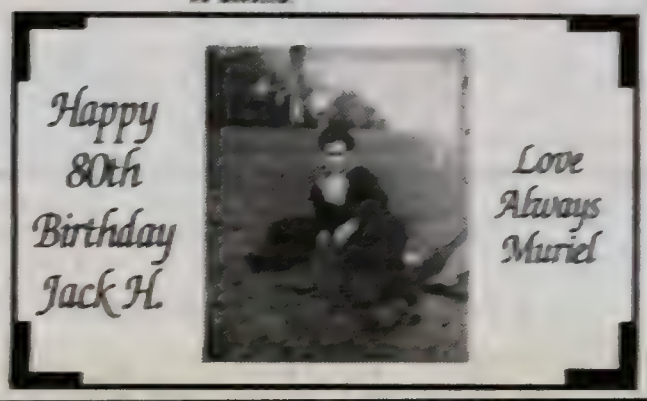
list and we hope to have them back with us soon.

Thanksgiving dinners eaten here and at family homes show us we all need a bit more exercise!

However, let us remember that "Nothing is work unless we'd rather be doing something else."



This is the Year of the R.R.I.F.

This Fall would be an appropriate time to remind all of you that this is the "Triple RRIF Conversion Year" If you are turning 69, 70, or 71 in 1997 you must convert your RRSP's (Registered Retirement Saving Plan) into a retirement option by year end.
If you are one of those affected, you face some big decisions this year. The first is what to do with your RRSP money. You have a number of options, of which RRIF's have tended to be the most popular.

CASH

You can take every cent of your RRSP in cash. However, the full amount will become taxable immediately, which means you will give a big portion of your RRSP savings back to the government.

ANNUITY

You can also buy an annuity which pays a guaranteed fixed income for life or to age 90. However, annuities are based on current interest rates which are very low at present. Also, you lose control of the money. If interest rates go up, you normally can't change your mind and switch to another annuity. And when you die, the life insurance company that issued the annuity may keep all the proceeds.

RRIFs

A RRIF's flexibility offers the best option for many people. RRIFs generally can hold any investment that was eligible for your RRSP. In fact, a RRIF is basically an RRSP in reverse. Instead of making contributions, you are required to withdraw a minimum amount every year, based on your age or your spouses age. You can take out more money if you want to, which means that a RRIF can be structured to protect you from cost of living increases.

The following are the minimum percentages that must be withdrawn from a RRIF between the ages of 69 and 73.

Age	%
69	4.76
70	5.00
71	7.38
72	7.48
73	7.50

If you haven't made the conversion yet, don't worry. There is still time before the end of 1997.

We at Financial Concept Group are here to help you choose the most appropriate option for your current and future needs.

Deficit and debt coming down

Ottawa report
by John O'Reilly, MP

Four years ago, the nation's finances were in disarray. Canadians and the world had lost confidence in our economy and our future. Canadians knew the fiscal mess had to be cleaned up. They said from the beginning that there was only one way to do it--to get economic growth up and get government spending down and that is exactly what we have done.

In 1993-94, the budget deficit was $42 billion or about 6% of GDP. In its October Economic and Fiscal Update, the government announced that the 1996-97 deficit came in at $8.9 billion--almost $20 billion lower than the previous year, and the largest year-over-year improvement in Canadian history.

This represents the smallest federal deficit in over two decades---indeed as a portion of our economy, at 1.1 per cent of GDP, it is the lowest deficit recorded since 1970-71.

The numbers for the first five months of this year have been very encouraging. The government has told Canadians that the deficit will be eliminated by no later than next year, 1998-99. This will represent the first time the federal government's books have been balanced since 1969-70.

The government's plan for economic growth and job creation is clearly working. We have broken the vicious circle of high deficits, high interest rates, slow economic growth and high unemployment and created a virtuous circle of lower interest rates, stronger economic growth, greater job growth, higher government revenues, and thus, lower deficits. It is this circle that underlies the phenomenal progress Canada has made and will continue to make.

Lower deficit and lower interest rates are now having a powerful and positive impact on our lives and the Canadian economy. Five year mortgage rate today are at their lowest level in decades. Consumer confidence is at its highest level in more than eight years. Business confidence is at record levels. The sale of consumer goods is strong. Housing resales have rebounded. Business investment has surged. In the second quarter of this year, the economy grew at an annual rate of almost five percent.

Economists now say that Canada's growth over the next two years will be at its strongest level in a decade--in fact, the strongest back-to-back growth of any G-7 country.

Canada's public debt remains very high but here too, we are starting to see some progress. For example, the most useful measure of our debt burden is the debt to GDP ratio- - what we owe in relations to what we produce. For the year ending last March, the ratio--at 73.1 per cent--recorded the first meaningful decline in more than 20 years.

Thus far this year we have actually been paying down marketable debt--that is the portion of the national debt owed to financial markets in the form of bonds, Treasury bills and other debt instruments. Canada's over-all dependence on foreign debt has been reduced--meaning more of the money earned in Canada is staying in Canada--and creating new jobs. Looking ahead, our commitment is to secure a permanent decline in the debt-to-GDP ratio.

Our strategy will be continued strong fiscal responsibility, paying down debt on the one hand, focusing on economic growth on the other.

Deficit has been reduced by 58%

Queen's Park Report
by Chris Hodgson, MPP

For two years, this government has been keeping its promises to the people of Ontario - cutting taxes, reducing government spending, reforming welfare and removing the barriers to new job creation.

The plan this government has followed was designed to take us into the next century with a balanced budget and renewed hope for prosperity in the future. In 1995, the deficit had skyrocketed to $11.2 billion. Today we are looking at a much brighter picture, and by the end of the fiscal 1997/98, we will have reduced the deficit by 58% - right on track to a balanced budget.

As Ontario's economic picture brightens, we are starting to see the results in good news announcements in our riding. Accomplishments are growing within Victoria-Haliburton and are good indicators of better things to come.

- Solicitor General Robert Runciman was in Lindsay recently to announce the site of one of the province's new correctional facilities, to be located in Ops Township, on the east side of Hwy. 36. The new facility will provide 300 full-time jobs and many economic spin-offs for our area.

- The Ministry of Education has allocated $850,000 of $2,300,000 needed towards the building of the new Victoria Street Elementary School in Haliburton County, to be called the Stuart Baker Elementary School. Through its extensive efforts, the Haliburton Board of Education proposed that a new school would be of greater value and more efficient than merely using the money towards extensive renovations to the old school.

- The Education Improvement Commission has approved a proposal from the Haliburton Board of Education for a school gym expansion at Haliburton Highlands Secondary School.

- The Kawartha Region Arts and Heritage Society and the Victoria-County Historical Society both recently received funding from the Heritage Organization Development Grant Program. The grant is an operating grant that assists with outreach activities such as the production of displays and promotional materials, public programs, lecture series, walking tours and special activities designed to inform and educate the general public about community heritage. The maximum grant award for 1997/98 is $1,617.00 which was awarded to the Kawartha Region Arts & Heritage Society and the Victoria County Historical Society followed closely behind with $1,393.00.

- Funding announcements were made recently in Lutterworth Township and Minden through the Canada/Ontario Infrastructure Works Program. Lutterworth has received $21,406 for upgrades to Clear Lake Road and Buller Road and Minden received $105,600 for a new intersection for Prince Street at Highway 35. These projects will make our roads safer and will reduce future maintenance costs.

The Ministry of Transportation has been busy improving the road conditions within Victoria-Haliburton and beyond. While there have been some delays, here are the highlights of this year's construction program.

The projects include a wide variety of improvement that the Ministry of Transportation will be carrying out to provide the public with better and safer highway transportation.

* Highway 121 at Centre Lake in Cardiff Township - replacement of the existing centreline culvert.

* Highway 35 south of Lindsay in Ops Township - resurfacing the road from junction of Highway 7A at Bethany to Highway 7 just south of Lindsay.

* Highway 36 north of Lindsay in Ops Township - resurfacing from Highway 7 north to Snug Harbour Road.

* Irondale River Bridge in Snowdon Township - replacement of existing structure.

* Burnt River Bridge in Somerville Township - structure deck rehabilitation.

* Black River Bridge in Sherborne Township - structure replacement.

These are just some of the examples of the government's reinvestment in our communities, and as our economic situation continues to improve, I look forward to sharing more good news announcements with you in the future.

A Branch 636 salute to Buck and Dora Foster

Bonjour!

October is just about over and has been one of the nicest in memory. We were also blessed with the most beautiful panorama of brilliant colours I have ever seen. We are lucky to live in this, the best area of Canada!!

As usual our Branch is very busy this fall. Some of our coming events are as follows:

• October 24: Bus to Woodbine for a day at the races.

• October 21-23 and 28-30: Euchre at the branch.

• October 26: Legion Auxiliary Ladies Day at the Red Umbrella.

• October 31: Kick off for our Poppy Canvass Days. Please wear a poppy proudly and support a good cause.

Mark these November events on your calendar:

• Euchre on November 4,6,13, 18, 20, 25, and 27.

• Big Bucks Euchre on Sunday the 16th at 1 p.m.

• Trivia Night on November 19 and every third Wednesday of each month.

• Darts (dazzling) competition, every Friday night through the fall and winter.

• Poppy canvassing Days.

• Remembrance Day and Service November 9.

• Ladies Auxiliary will be holding a special service at Archie Stouffer Elementary School on November 11.

•Niagara Festival of Lights bus trip, November 22 and 23.

• And don't forget, each Wednesday at noon we host a meat draw at the Legion dining hall. Some lucky winners of late include:

• September 10: Gary Foster (twice) of Minden; Ann McCreight, Twelve Mile Lake; Ralph Tarswell Bob Lake.

• September 17: Fred Knight, Minden; Don Nye, Minden; Al Mayo, Allsaw Flats; Pam Tarswell, Bob Lake.

• September 24: Ann McCreight; Bert Gillies, Minden; Pat Currah; Bill Douglas, the Valley, Gelert.

• October 1: Buck Cowle, Bowmanville; Don Nye; Rita MacNamara, Minden Lake; Ralph Tarswell.

• October 8: Norma Douglas, the valley, Gelert; Al Mayo; Clem Hewett, Mountain Lake; Ralph Tarswell.

Service Clubs
by Alan (Cub) Coneybeare

(I think the Tarswells have some kind of combination in winning all these steaks and roasts. It sure helps to keep the meat costs down!)

I should also mention that Terry Lumley of Minden won the 50/50 draw.

Member profile

This month's Legion member profile features Albert (Buck) and Dora Foster.

Albert was born in Toronto and raised and educated in Holland Landing and Newmarket High School. He married Dora Longfield, also a Toronto native, on August 31, 1957.

Both lived and worked in Toronto, Albert for the Drug Trading Company for several years, and Dora worked for Sears and Montreal Trust Company.

They moved to Downsview and worked for deHavilland Aircraft for three years.

They moved back to Holland landing and purchased a home and started their own business, oil heating and cooling service, until 1980.

They raised four children, Gary, Margo, Brett and Kay. Three of the children are living in the Minden area and one in Barrie.

Purchased the Wagon Wheel Motel and Restaurant in Minden and, after six years, sold it.

Albert is employed by Sid Stamp Fuels and has been there since 1986. Dora works for Minden Home Hardware. Buck is a charter member of the Holland Landing Lions Club and has been a member of the Kinsmen Club of Minden and is a member of the K-40, Minden, and an active Mason, serving as past master of the Somerville Lodge, 451, Kinmount. Dora has been a Kinette and is also a member of the K-40 club.

Both are members of Branch 636. Dora is on the executive serving as chairperson of the membership committee.

(Cub's Note: Chairing the membership committee is an extremely important post and Dora has done an excellent, dedicated job. Thanks Dora! (She also gets a lot of help from Dorothy Ash. Thanks Dorothy!))

If beer drinking ever becomes an Olympic event, put your money on the Finns. In a recent beer quaffing contest held on a Baltic ferry, the Finns dominated with one guy downing a pint 2.5 seconds and eight bottles in 71 seconds and another winning the dignified small tankard division. "Their prowess," said their cruise host, "derives from their cultural approach to imbibing."

The Blue jays are out of it this year, but they have won the popularity vote for employing the guys with the two handsomest smiles in the majors. We are speaking of Joe Carter and Carlos Delgado.

My favourite story about Queen Victoria: Before the advent of sewer, raw sewage and toilet paper was dumped into rivers. On a trip to Cambridge University in 1843, the Queen was walking along the banks of the Cam with the Masters of Trinity College. As they cross a bridge, she glanced down and asked, "What are those pieces of paper floating down the river?" The good master summoned all his tact and replied, "Those, my lady, are notices that bathing is forbidden."

That is it. Until next time, thanks

Cub.

Minden W.I. October meeting

On a pleasant October 15 afternoon, 14 members and two guests enjoyed a meeting of the Minden Women's Institute at the Terrace.

There were several adding their money to the birthday box. The roll call, an interesting fact about Ontario, had all telling their item. Jean Cox chaired the meeting and told us about the yard sale which is planned for May 24, 1998. She also requested that members provide a history profile for the Tweedsmuir book.

Irene Moore, card convener, reported that 12 cards had been sent for different occasions since the last meeting. Collections were taken for this fund as well as Pennies for Friendship. She also has a new list of residents at Hyland Crest.

We heard a report of 1996 current events which had been prepared for the history book. Jeanne Sears, convener, had a quiz-questionnaire which led to a discussion on some of the interesting facts. It was enjoyed by all. A suggestion was made at the end that all vote in the municipal election.

The president had attended a meeting regarding the preservation of the records from the registry office. They hope to save these records and this will be sponsored by the Haliburton Genealogy Society. They will likely need volunteers to assist in this matter.

Mary Cox, District director read her report from Victoria East Annual District Meeting and an Executive District Meeting.

Next meeting will be held on November 19 at 1:30 p.m. at the Library Cultural Centre and all ladies are welcome.

After adjournment, Irene Moore acted as auctioneer for the goods turned in and all enjoyed a lunch served by the ladies.

ASES school council is looking for a name

--submitted--

A.S.E.S. Council is back in action for the 1997-1998 school calendar and what an interesting and exciting year it promises to be. We held our first meeting October 7 and your Archie Stouffer School Council includes the following representatives to date:

Chairperson - Skip Ray (Parent rep.)
Secretary - Carol Cox (Non-teaching rep.)
Treasurer - Jackie Salerno-Ruddy (Parent rep.)
Peter Forgrave (Principal)
Brenda Brouwers (Teaching rep.)
Maureen Bennett (Parent rep.)
Ron Callaghan (Parent rep.)
Terry Goodwin (Parent rep.)
Valerie Lennox (Parent rep.)
Heike Roome (Parent rep.)

We were joined by representatives of the Haliburton Teachers' Federations at our meeting and were presented with their point of viw on Bill C160. They left us with the request that we read their full page information document in the local papers and a phone number - 1-800-424-2490, which anyone can call to express concerns.

We would like to extend the invitation to anyone who would like to submit a name for the new District School Board which is presently called "District Board #15". This board is the amalgamation of Haliburton, Muskoka and Victoria and it was felt a name which better depicted the beauty and diversity of these counties should be used as the Board's title. Anyone wishing to submit a suggestion is welcome to send their idea to the school by October 27 at 4 p.m.

Everyone is welcome to attend our next scheduled meeting on December 2, 1997 at 5:30 p.m. in the school library.

Until next month!

Infrastructure funding helps two local road projects

Three levels of government have pitched in over $125,000 to improve local area roads. Under the Canada/Ontario Infrastructure Works Program, the municipalities of Anson, Hindon and Minden and Lutterworth will undergo road work in the hopes that it will maintain safety, and improve the local economy.

The announcements were made by Victoria-Haliburton MPP John O'Reilly, Victoria-Haliburton MP Chris Hodgson as well as the Reeves of Anson, Hindon and Minden and Lutterworth townships, Jeanne Anthon and Jim McMahon.

The funding will be used for two separate projects. The intersection of Prince Street and Highway 35 in Minden will be levelled and improved as part of the business park development, and Clear Lake and Buller Roads in Lutterworth will be upgraded. These projects have received $105,600 and $21,406 respectively.

"Preserving Ontario's road network is a wise investment," said Chris Hodgson. "These improvements will reduce future maintenance costs as well as increase safety for drivers using these sections of the road."

Under the joint venture program, $2.8 billion has been invested in Ontario's infrastructure.

Volunteers needed for orientation groups

Planning efforts will concentrate on specific areas of concern

(The following was prepared by Tamara Wilbee of the Haliburton Strategic Planning Committee.)

The County of Haliburton Strategic Planning Committee needs your participation!

Haliburton County Council has received the Community based Strategic Plan document prepared by Econotrends Ltd. An interim Steering Committee met on October 10 in an effort to formulate recommendations for county council on the organizational model and to determine the next steps. These recommendations will be taken to council on October 29.

The proposed model has orientation groups including an Economic Diversification Committee, a County Seniors Association, a Youth Council, an Environmental Advisory Group, a County Marketing Group, a Health Issues Group, an Educational Group and a Community Transportation Group.

Ideally, a representative from each of these orientation groups would sit on the Community Steering Committee along with appointed members of county council. They would be responsible for co-ordination and communication between the various groups and the public as well as monitor progress and make financial recommendations for approval in the annual budget.

In the meantime, in anticipation of a supportive response from council, the committee has asked that the orientation groups be formed as soon as possible. Several people at the public meetings over the summer indicated that they were interested in participating. If you were among those people and were serious, please call the county office. You don't have to be limited to one group if you have the time and desire to do more. If you are a seasonal resident and have reservations because of this, call anyway. We want your help even if you aren't able to maintain a perfect attendance record.

People are speculating that this plan will remain on the shelf as many plans have. If we don't have public support and participation, this could happen. In this age of downsizing, local government can't supply all of the solutions nor the money to go with them.

We need "Made in Haliburton County" solutions in order to achieve the vision of a County with a co-operative environment within which the different players and population groups have worked together to achieve:

- a sustainable natural environment;
- a more stable, diversified year round economy;
- residential development in keeping with the small town atmosphere;
- environmental integrity and adequate accessible services;
- and a strong sense of regional identity with a more inclusive and tolerant community with all it takes to provide a high quality of life.

A meeting is set for November 14. Our goal is to have the orientation groups initiated. Please call Tamara Wilbee at the county office (705-288-1333) as soon as possible and start helping to implement positive, community driven change in Haliburton County.

Residents enjoy many visitors during Thanksgiving

Senior League
The Roving Reporters

Hello everyone. Another week has gone by and it's time to catch up on our news. Our happy hour last Friday was much enjoyed with the entertainment of "Northern Jam". Dorethea Lynch was visited by her grand daughter. Brian Hunter visited with his uncle, Len Phillips, who is here on vacation care. Brian also visited with Sid and Ruby Roberts and then enjoyed a chat with Rob Young.

On Saturday October 11, Laura Upton celebrated her birthday at an open house at her daughter Lois' home.

Over Thanksgiving weekend our home was packed with visitors coming and going and many residents went home, visiting their families and enjoying this special time of year. On Sunday evening the children and grandchildren of Winnifred Rosebush brought in Thanksgiving dinner for her. What a great idea. The rest of us enjoyed our own Thanksgiving dinner. Roast turkey with all the trimmings and pumpkin pie for dessert. Many thanks to the dietary staff for a delicious meal.

Sunday evening, Reverend Burgess was here for the final Sunday evening service. Many residents attended despite a lot of us being away from the home. After 20 years of holding Sunday chapel, Reverend Burgess will be missed, but we are very pleased to hear that he will be visiting us on a regular basis.

We were saddened to hear of the death of Ruby Schmidt. Our sympathy to her family and friends.

Thanksgiving Monday was very quiet here after the hustle and bustle of the weekend. We said goodbye to Len Phillips and welcomed Violet Cheeseman who is staying with us on vacation care.

The week of October 13 was "Activities Professional Awareness Week" and activities staff Linda, Janet and Nancy were presented with corsages in appreciation. Tuesday morning Alice Todd and Judy Stevenson, with the help of a volunteer were busy making zucchini bread. The aroma from the kitchen made our mouths water.

In the evening some of us participated in "Adopt a Grandparent." Eight children were here from the youth group of the Bible Church. They will visiting every second week. The children were delightful and it didn't take long before friendships were formed.

Our congratulations to Janet Donnery who graduated from Georgian College on October 15 and now has her degree in "Activation Techniques in Gerontology." Also on Wednesday we thoroughly enjoyed the music of "Happy Wanderers." This group visits with us one a year. They hail from the Coboconk area. And in the evening another wonderful music selection by the Fearreys.

Today (October 16) is our tea party and we will be served by the ladies of the Wilberforce Legion. Our thanks to them. We always enjoy our tea parties.

We are looking forward to the "surprise" appreciation tea for Rev. Burgess that will have taken place on October 19. More about this next week. That's it. Caught up again on our news. Talk with you next week. In the meantime, take care!

CARDS OF THANKS

The family of the late Florence Robinson would like to thank everyone for their overwhelming love and support in the past few weeks. Our utmost gratitude for the phone calls, cards, prayers, food, flowers, donations and visits, both at our home and the funeral home as well as the service. Thanks to the V.O.N. who so capably took care of Mom in the past and the Red Cross Homemakers on whom she depended totally, you were wonderful to her. We can't forget the doctors who attended her over the years, particularly Dr. Judith Smith for diligent house calls. Special thanks to long time close friend Edna Morgan for her love and time given to Mom, Nellie King for years of friendship, Glenda Burk who showed so much affection and compassion to her. Thanks also to Naomi Aggett who came faithfully to read, Arnie Dykstra for weekly visits and Diane Johnson for cheerful conversations and so many others so numerous. The Gordon Monk Funeral Home displayed their usual acts of support and strength through difficult days, you folks are one in a million. Mom's service was beautiful mainly due to the touching message by Reverend Harry Morgan, a grand tribute by Glenda Burk as well as the solo by Shirleen DeHaan accompanied by Lynda Pawluch and Catherine Kellett and the lovely duet by Harry and Glenda. Just exactly what Mom had requested. To the Minden U.C.W. for the tasty luncheon served, our sincerest thanks. God Bless each and every one of you. Mom and Grandma has gone to her heavenly reward. We on earth will miss her deeply.
Janice, Jack, Doug & Karen Shaw. Bradley, Maggie, Donna and Phillip Robinson.

A million thanks to all the kind people who sent get well cards to Lloyd in the hospital and then sympathy cards to me. Your thoughtfulness was greatly appreciated.
Millie Boskett.

IN MEMORIAM

HARE, Frederick Walton - October 26, 1996.
Dad, we love you even though
We do not see you now.
And our hearts grieve and ache so
Yet you remain with us somehow.
We miss your smile and all the fun
We miss the grampa our children call "Gong Gong".
Thank you for all the blessings
You gave us through the years
The lessons that you taught us
Remain strong despite the tears.
We know one day we'll see you
In heaven far above
But we have treasured memories
Of our Dad's abundant love.
Mom has gone to join you,
Our Lord has called her home,
We miss you both so very much
Yet know we are never alone.
Your spirits stay to help us
In Christ, this we know,
Our refuge and strength remain
Knowing you are both God's chosen own.
Eternal Love,
Donna (nee Hare) & Dr. Bennett Wu, Anthony, Luke, Becky, Elijah and Holly Angelica.
